Jeff spoke with Cathy Horton again this evening, just to recap yesterday's conversation between Cathy and Heritage..... They specifically indicated that "the door is not closed", however it is up to Bob Pendergast to decide what road we will travel on this. We have a meeting scheduled for Thursday, but no specific time as of yet. We are all confident that getting in front of Bob will be a good thing. They still want to deal with "John and Jeff".... so, we'll see just how good we are.

We need to go into that meeting armed to the teeth. Production plans, binders, who we'll use, what we've done thus far, etc. This will need to be a group effort.
